PRODUCT DATA SHEET

Gemini Mesh Task Chair

CODE: GEM302K2

Gemini is an ideal chair for individuals who spend prolonged periods sitting in front of a computer screen. This chair boasts several features that provide comfort and support, which are essential for maintaining good posture and preventing body fatigue. One of the most prominent features of this chair is its adjustable arms and padded headrest, which can be locked in place. The lumbar support is also adjustable, allowing users to customize the support level needed to maintain good posture. The black air mesh seat and designer mesh back with adjustable lumbar support provide additional support and comfort. The chair also features a five-star aluminium base, which is both stylish and sturdy.
